THE UNICORN SCHOOL
POSITIVE BEHAVIOUR POLICY

September 2016

As well as being a requirement of the Children Act it is also important for parents, teachers and pupils to have a clear view of the system of discipline within the school.

From a positive point of view, the object of discipline should be to encourage particular modes of behaviour. These may be summarised as follows:

- Self control, positive self esteem and self discipline
- Consideration for others
- Punctuality
- Good manners
- Ability to organise one's own work and belongings
- Ability to integrate well with peer group and adults
- Respect for others' feelings and tolerance of others' weaknesses
- Responsibility for work, equipment and environment

Behaviour to be discouraged includes:

Low Level

unco-operation	pushing in interrupting	attention seeking telling tales	wasting time being noisy	arguing about everything cheekiness	play-fighting/horseplay distracting others from working	squabbles

Medium Level

using bad/inappropriate language, including swearing arguing back with teacher graffiti	rudeness
kicking	hitting back
swearing at pupils	fighting
fibbing	refusal to follow instructions

High Level

vandalism	biting
vicious kicking	fighting/thuggery swearing at staff	lying racial abuse	stealing verbal abuse of staff	extortion running out of school	bullying, including verbal teasing/threats dangerous refusal to follow instructions smoking	drug abuse
drinking alcohol	threatening behaviour
sexual harassment	possession and/or supply of drugs

Promoting and maintaining good discipline by system of rewards and sanctions

Wherever teachers can show an awareness of the circumstances, interests and needs of their individual pupils, the need for a sanction based discipline is reduced. High expectations of behaviour and the showing of respect towards and among pupils is likely to reduce the needs for punishment. Clear boundaries and consistent treatment of “offences” will make the application of our discipline policy very much easier since the pupils will know where they stand and will have a very good and clear idea of the consequences of their actions.

Rewards: for example

- Praise for effort, house points, merits
- Picking out individuals for praise in front of rest of the school
- Letter/e-mail home reporting good behaviour
- Giving more responsibilities

Sanctions:

- Loss of Golden Time (Years 3 – 8)
- Withdrawal of approval
- Staying in at break
- Withdrawal of privilege e.g. football, outing
- Taking responsibility for actions– e.g. cleaning up the mess they have made
- Making written record of offence
- Calling in parents when appropriate
- Exclusion
- Permanent exclusion

Application of sanctions:

They must be applied consistently, so that pupils know what to expect.

Repetition of medium or high level offences must lead to a specific sequence of events, e.g.

1. telling off
2. verbal warning not to repeat offence
3. loss of Golden Time
4. lunch time detentions
5. make written record of offence in incident book kept in staff room
6. inform parents and possibly call them in
7. exclusion as last warning before permanent exclusion

However in extreme cases (e.g. possession of drugs, severe harm, whether physical or verbal, threatening behaviour, etc.) the child will be automatically expelled: parents will be contacted and asked to remove the child and police called if necessary.

A minority of pupils may need extra support of individual behaviour management plans, contracts, target sheets and daily or weekly report cards. For some of these pupils it may be appropriate to offer more intensive counselling, perhaps involving the use of outside specialists, who will work with the school and parents on a clearly defined programme.

This policy will be monitored and reviewed every two years.
